

Can I help keep fire hydrants clear of snow?

Yes. Residents can help the Fire Department by keeping hydrants clear of snow. This allows for a quicker and more immediate emergency response.

It is not necessary to clear the snow to the edge of the street. But it is essential to shovel about a 3-to-4-foot ring all the way around the hydrant down to the area where fire hoses connect.